The club magazine 'Cortina Times'

The club produces an approximate 40-page A5-format magazine every 2 months, with full colour printing on front and back pages, inside and out. This magazine is professionally designed and produced on computer and sent by email to Kopyrite of Chipping Norton. Tim Birks of Kopyrite, who prints and binds the magazine, and posts it world-wide to over 1100 members!

The magazine mostly contains articles and information produced by members of the club. A selection of magazine front covers is produced below, together with a little of the magazine content.

Magazine editor is Maggie Cotton. Maggie is always on the lookout for material, Send your stories to maggiemk1editor@gmail.com

Publishing times are early Jan, early March etc.

The cost for overseas members is £30 for a pdf of the magazine and £45 for a hard copy.
